I I I Tony Hawk
=====

Depending on whose house you were checking, Tony Hawk's been a household name for over twenty years. But it's really his last half decade of contest winning and 900 spinning that have tattooed HAWK on the foreheads of our youth. A trailblazer in the effort to bring skateboarding to the ends of the world, Tony has become an icon for a generation of kids sorely needed one. Through the invention of coutless tricks, his seemingly limitless potential, and a sense of grace and class that follows behind his quickly moving self, Tony Hawk soars.

I V Steve Caballero

One of a select few, this "Godfather of Modern Skateboarding," help defined just what it means to be a professional skateboarder, pioneering this modern era of technical skating with innowvations like his namesake fakie ollie 360 - The Caballerial. With the energy of a teenager and the sophistication of a man who has made his own way, Cab is a year-round skater who teaches by example. He rides every terrain - street, vert, and parks - with the skill and passion of a master.

V Kareem Campbell

An ideal combination of both East and West coast sensibilities, Kareem Campbell is not a bridge joining an equal-but-opposing geo-cultural issue, he's just an authentic skater. Born and raised in real cities, his skate-life come-up led Kareem to develop an urban foundation to his skateboarding. Not by design, but rather out of necessity, his metro-style is a well-honed version of what the rest of the world's street dwellers hope to someday attain: smart, real, and smoothed out - without the R&B.

An O.G. Dane enduring the climes of sunny So.Cal, Rune Glifburg's been known to phone home using ubiquitous digital technology. His extra-terrestrail power style has led him to the podium of many vert contest, but he's suprisingly well versed in all of the undisciplined disciplines of modern skating, parks, pools, streets, and, of course, whatever. Pinching bits and peices of experiences from all terrain has made Rune one of the mose veritile skaters of the day. Rune has shown that treet, vert, or otherwise, it is possible to be at home no matter where one may be in the world.

The clean bean ideal of an Everyskater, Eric Kosten has quietly become skateboarding's most influential front-row cheerleader for the Los Angelas Laders. Tirelessly supporting his home team to a donination NBA Championship two peat, Eric, has also managed to evelve his smooth, consistent, and innovative skateboarding skills to the point that young fans everywhere are abandoning their dreams of crossovers and three pointers in hopes of someday nailing fifteen-stair backside noseblunt slides, "Just like Kosten"

Bucky Lasek is an excitable twenty-something who, once emerging from the long shadow cast by his friend and mentor Tony Hawk, proceeding to destro any sitcom sidekickk preconceptions by cranking out his own style of beyond-the-boundries vert skating. Bucky carries along with him a wieghty satchel of trickness that includes above-the-lip flips and twist and a laundry list of tech coping sorcery.

 I X Bam Margera

Bam is both the lightning bolt and the lightning rod - snapping necks with his unrestrained Pennsylvania - grown skate style, and harnessing the energy of his own massive discharge by video taping literally every waking moment of his practical - joker lifestyle. For skaters, he's a hilariously talented breath of fresh air in the form of seriously non - serious, and for the rest of the planet who knows him simply as "The Jackass who skates," he's the bad example that everyone wants to follow. Perfectly shocking.

Rodney Mullen birthed today's street tech. Period. An icon among idols, he's the man who freestyled many of the moves today's freshest pros use as a foundation for their own progressive skating. Flat ground ollies, 360 flips, and ollie impossibles were all made manifest by the critical thought and problem solving of this tenured Prof. of skateboard conceptualism.

Bringing a precise link and stomp to the sometimes failing world of big drop street skating, Andrew Reynold's it Hammer Time tendencies are powered by his willingness to throw his six foot frame from heights that make limping crybabies out of lesser men. Powered by invisible springs and kept upright with hidden gyroscopes, Reynolds represents skateboarding's ultimate fighting machine - declassified and unleashed on the planet in hopes of keeping our streets free of ticky tack mediocrity.

An explosion of over the top activity has elevated Geoff Rowley from excellent skater to skateboardings par excellence. Consistently operating above the also runs in the non competitive competition that defines real skateboarding, this re-located Brit has paid his fair share of dues whilst uncerimoniously being dubbed the official holder of the title, King Assassin of Unsuspecting Rails and Double Sets. And that's official.

X I V Elissa Steamer

Truly a skater's skater, Elissa hasn't made her name in professional skateboarding as a flag waving "first female" but as a no - nonsense skater with a sick desire to learn, progress and rise above even her own preconceptions of what can be done on board. Taking her lumps and paying her dues along with the rest of the pro field, she's altered the testosterone soaked landscape of skateboarding by refusing to lower herself to the level of gender debates and instead choosing to just shut up and skate.

Jamie Thomas

Coming up on 15 years of serious skateboarding, Jamie Thomas still wakes up everyday thinking, living and breathing his "Leap of Faith" style skating - and shows no sign of easing up any time soon. With a drive strong enough to motivate his mind over what really matters, Thomas can often be found speeding through immense handrail and gap situations leaving in his wake the shredded conceptions of where skateboarding can be shoved for the sake of "How far?" and "How high?".
